A lot of people don't like to live in noisy, dirty and crowded cities. They are tired of the traffic, the pollution in the air and the rubbish spread in their surroundings. Then, they are happy if they can stay in villages near their cities for a short time. They enjoy the clean air, the quiet and beautiful nature there. But because they can no longer use the big stores, cinemas and the excitement of the city they don't like to stay for a long time. On the other hand, villagers enjoy visiting the city for a day or two to buy the things they can't get in their villages. They may often find the city a rather frightening place and are usually happy when they get back to their own villages.
